

TOWN HISTORY SERIES 2012

The Sagadahoc History and Genealogy Room announces its eighth annual Town History Series, jointly sponsored by the Patten Free Library and the Bath Historical Society. On six consecutive Saturday mornings, from 10:30-11:30 A.M., people from the towns served by the Library will present aspects of their towns' histories in the Community Room of the Patten Free Library. This year's Series will be dedicated to Barbara Esmond, long-time volunteer in the History Room. Again this year, Raymond James and Associates, Inc. will be the financial sponsor of the Series.

January 21 – Bath: Peter Goodwin & Robin Haynes: “History of the Patten Free Library”

January 28 – Arrowsic: Fred Kahrl: “Saving Squirrel Point Light Station”

February 4 – Georgetown: Rich Start: “The Terrible Fire of ‘34”

February 11 – Woolwich: A Panel: “Stories of Woolwich Schools”

February 18 – Phippsburg: John G. Morse IV: “Phippsburg Then and Now”

February 25 – West Bath: Frank Roberts & Charlie Burden: “The Littlefield School: West Bath’s Historic One-Room Schoolhouse”